OTS Solicitors

107 - 111 Fleet Street
London EC4A 2AB
United Kingdom

Telephone: 0207 936 9960
Fax: 0207 936 9100

The firmEstablished in 2014, OTS Solicitors has rapidly become recognised as one of the UK's leading immigration and family law firms. Few practices have achieved so much national and international recognition in such a short period of time. With a policy of hiring the sharpest legal talent, the solicitors are intelligent, knowledgeable, commercially astute, and creative thinkers.With former tribunal judge Paul Gulbenkian and widely published international lawyer, Dr Harry Hagopian acting as consultants, the firm is regularly called on by domestic and foreign media to provide opinions on immigration and family law, Brexit and many other legal matters.Focused on delivering legal expertise in the niche areas of immigration, family, civil litigation, commercial, employmen, the firm is highly recommended by clients, other solicitors and barristers because of the emphasis on quality and excellence.Areas of practiceBusiness Immigration: OTS Solicitors have a strong reputation with both UK and international businesses for providing progressive, expert legal advice and solutions on all business immigration matters. The firm acts for entrepreneurs, high-net-worth investors, academic institutions, multi-national organisations, and SMEs.Immigration: The immigration department possesses a wealth of experience in advising on all elements of immigration law including visitor visas, family visas, indefinite leave to remain, immigration bail, appeals and overstay, and detention and removal.Family Law: Advise on divorce, High-Net-Worth divorce, child arrangements, financial settlements, domestic violence, The head of the family law department is a member of Resolution. The team work closely together, offering unrivalled expertise in cases which involve both family and immigration law elements such as international divorce, child abduction and inter-country adoption.Employment Law: Provide expert advice and represents clients on matters regarding disciplinary matters, TUPE, redundancy, Employment Tribunal claims, Equality Act 2010 and settlement agreements.Human Rights: Provide highly-knowledgeable human rights advice and representation. They regularly advise on Article 8 and Article 3 immigration appeals and Judicial Review challenges. The firm has a robust understanding of Middle East, Asia and African asylum and human rights cases and have access to specific country legal expertise and human rights groups.Civil Litigation: The commercial department has extensive experience in all civil litigation disputes, including claims for breach of contract, professional negligence, director and shareholder disputes.Commercial and company law: OTS Solicitors advise on all commercial and corporate law matters, including setting up a company, partnership and shareholder agreements, commercial contracts, terms and conditions and disputes. The firm specialises in assisting overseas entrepreneurs to set up their organisation once they gain entry clearance.

Visit Website