The Institute Of Paralegals: Administer the Route to Qualification: the first and only national (and nationally recognised) career path for professional paralegals. It turns a job into a career, and an occupation into a profession. Set and administer the National Competency Standards for paralegals and legal secretaries. Help our members to develop their careers as legal professionals. Give free paralegal careers advice. Represent paralegals (both here and overseas). Work with leading organisations such as the University of Cambridge to bring you the best paralegal training.
