Welcome to Paradigm Family Law, a niche practice specialising in divorce and family law advice run by matrimonial experts James Thornton and Frank Arndt. We have over 30 years experience in our field, and provide specialist legal advice for divorce and family matters including international disputes. At Paradigm Family Law we put the client at the heart of what we do. We are the first family law practice to offer transparent clear fixed fee solutions at the outset of the case covering first meeting to conclusion including representation in financial proceedings. No alarms, no surprises. Just certainty of fees from the outset, removing the traditional hourly-rate fee structures of old and surprise cost reviews. Our legal advice and assistance provides solutions. The fees for your case are fixed from day one, enabling you to budget with certainty and security and without the stress of unknown increased costs in the future as your case progresses. The first consultation is free. Our case management systems allow easy and regular updates on your case without extra fees.
