Established in 1824 Barrett & Thomson is one of the oldest Law firms in Slough. We provide a wide range of legal services to individual, commercial, and industrial Clients in the Slough area and beyond. Our respect for traditional professional values is combined with a businesslike approach to our Clients' instructions. Our advice is aimed at being prompt, reliable and effective. Personal service is the hallmark of our practice. We attach a high degree of importance to all instructions received, and develop a genuine interest in our Clients activities. This enables us to provide a service which is not only technically accurate, but is also practical and helpful. We will keep you fully informed of all developments, and ensure that your work is dealt with promptly and efficiently. We have Family & Housing & Debt contracts with the Legal Aid Agency. Legal Aid is therefore available in these areas subject to eligibility.
