For more than sixty years the partners of Mansouri & Son Solicitors have provided trusted and reliable legal advice and assistance to businesses, families and individuals across the world. We pride ourselves on Delivering Results for our clients Through Excellence. We are now the internet's leading matrimonial, divorce and family law practice and have teams of specialist lawyers equipped to meet all the demands of a twenty-first century legal practice without compromising our trusted tradition of providing a supportive, friendly and personal service to every one of our clients. We take a very firm no-nonsense approach to all our work and although we will always promote an amicable settlement, we will act professionally and ensure that your interests are safeguarded at all times, leaving you to recover your life, no matter what situation you find yourself in. We provide quality advice and assistance on a wide range of legal specialities including all aspects of divorce and family law in England & Wales. If you are experiencing family breakdown or are contemplating divorce, we will provide the solution. We handle our workload using the very latest in modern technology and the internet. This means that we can assist you in your matters, irrespective of where you live. We can even represent you if you live abroad and you have a legal matter in any court in England & Wales. Despite our extensive expertise we compete aggressively on providing excellence at substantially reduced fees.
