Macnab Clarke is a specialist criminal practice able to provide representation for legal aid and private clients. A well respected firm within Oxfordshire and the surrounding area with an outstanding reputation for client care. The client is always considered central to the case. We endeavour to give clear explanations and provide you with documentation in plain English, as we understand how daunting it can be to face criminal proceedings. We have dedicated Magistrates and Crown Court solicitors who appear in court on a daily basis. Our solicitors have a wealth of experience both in court and representing clients at the police station. We are proud to be ranked in Chambers & Partners "This traditional criminal practice continues to provide a high quality service to legally aided clients... and has particular expertise in working with vulnerable clients such as the young and mentally challenged. The team has recently been involved in a number of high profile criminal case including murder, conspiracy to murder and false imprisonment" We provide 24 hour cover at the police station, maintaining contact with our clients and offer continuity in your representation if you are charged and appear before local Magistrates or Crown Court.
