About Caragh Connection Recruitment Caragh Connection recruitment operates across the UK with a major focus on the North West of England. We have been providing specialist recruitment services across a variety of sectors for over a decade. We have an experienced and passionate team stationed in Manchester City Centre, with a business lounge for greeting our candidates and clients. We also conduct interviews with our clients to accommodate confidentiality of vacancies where necessary. We currently recruit permanent staff nationwide. We have diversified beyond our established markets of Legal and Office support now representing candidates across more sectors – such as IT & Property. Whether you're looking for a legal professional role, a recruitment role, an accountant role or whether you're an employer looking to appoint such candidates, you'll find that Caragh Connection recruitment can provide the quality, professional and speedy service you require. We have been successfully matching the right individuals to the right positions for over a decade now. Our Values Reliability We do everything we can to ensure that we keep our promises and that set deadlines are always met. We are always available to respond because we don't take on too much. Innovative and resourceful In order for a business to keep up to date on new ways to attracting and assessing high quality candidates we constantly seek new and better ways to recruit. The industry we are in is far from static and we must move with every step that's taken whether it is the market, technology or locations. We ensure that we anticipate changes and alterations in the recruitment marketplace. Sincere We are open with information and knowledge and we share this with our clients and candidates. We are honest and sincere with each other. We act with integrity and honesty and believe in getting off to a clear start. Partnership By working together we aim to build long lasting relationships, trust and partnership to ensure the recruitment process is understood. Seeking a role: If you're looking for a new job, you've come to the right place. We are constantly uploading vacancies onto our online job boards, website and social media. Have a look at the latest positions on this website. Submit vacancy: We are always keen to hear from employers looking for the right candidate to add value and efficiency to their team.
