A leading law firm of litigators and advocates specialising in criminal defence.

Known for successfully defending complex and serious crime, motoring law and benefit fraud. When Linskills Solicitors was established in Liverpool in 1978 it broke new ground as a law firm that focused on criminal defence, public law and human rights. Our lawyers have been instructed in some of the most high profile cases of recent years, representing clients both nationally and internationally. We are proud to be recognised as the 'go-to firm' for cases that push the boundaries of the law. Our strength lies in our dedication to providing a dynamic forward-thinking service that caters to the needs of the client. With a strong history of innovation and a commitment to our core values, Linskills Solicitors thrives in the modern legal system where diversity and accessibility are championed and out-dated practices are challenged.
