We are an expanding and dynamic full service firm of Solicitors based in Slough located minutes from Windsor and Eton in the heart of the Thames Valley. Our personal and pragmatic approach is something that runs throughout our practice and underpins our success. Whilst the business and variety of services offered have evolved to best meet the needs of our clients, our people have and will always be at the heart of what makes us different. We are results driven and passionate about offering practical, clear and sensible solutions to our clients. We pride ourselves on being approachable and personable ensuring the right Solicitor is working alongside you. Whether you're a private, commercial or professional client, we identify opportunities, as well as advising on avoiding pitfalls. We can assure you that our highly skilled Solicitors have the experience and knowledge to handle your specific needs.
