Potter Rees Dolan is a Manchester based firm of serious injury solicitors which provides high quality legal services for people who have sustained such an injury or live with a disability. We have a national reputation for acting for clients with a spinal cord injury or brain injury through accident or clinical negligence. We are specialised lawyers with many years' experience of dealing with claims of the utmost severity and complexity. We take great pride in acting for our clients in a caring, professional and sensitive manner – always putting their interests and needs first. We have a proven track record of success and are renowned for recovering the highest levels of compensation possible for our clients.
