Taylor & Co Valuations Ltd

The London Diamond Bourse
100 Hatton Garden
London EC1N 8NX
United Kingdom

Telephone: +44 (0)7801985883

Professor Taylor is the principal consultant at Taylor & Co valuations Ltd. He is recognised internationally as a leading expert jeweller, diamond expert, gemstone expert, watch expert and valuation expert. His extensive commercial experience encompasses manufacturing, wholesale, retail, repairs and restoration, testing and identification, and valuation in all types of international and domestic markets.Fundamental to our service is the importance of listening and understandingUnderstanding the unique aspects of each instruction is essential to ensure the service provided matches with the client's requirements. The service we offer is tailored to the client's requirements we only provide bespoke solutions.Experience and expertise is the foundation of the services we offer, it enables us to offer relevant advice backed by a deep understanding of the market and the industry. Our track record is second to none in the field.Taylor & Co Valuations offers professional expert services on all aspects relating to gemstones, diamonds and jewellery and precious metal objects. Our clients include insurers, accountants, liquidators, and creditors police trading standards, plaintiffs, respondents, working for both the defence and prosecution in both civil and criminal actions. The majority of work completed involves value for which we have developed extensive resources, we also have extensive testing resources both in expertise and advanced testing equipment.Professor Richard Taylor the principal valuer and consultant have more than 30 years’ experience in preparing expert reports used in civil, criminal, and matrimonial disputes. His international reputation means he is frequently instructed for international clients working in Africa, USA, Europe, South America, Middle East, and Asia. He is frequently instructed by Police,

Revenue and Customs, and other government departments, as well as major international companies and private individuals. His experience and qualifications are exceptional so the quality of the advice and the reports produced are impeccable.We provide expert services for both privately funded and publicly funded cases.Litigation and disputes involving jewellery and gemstonesDisputes pertaining to the retail & manufacturing of jewellery and gemsJewellery expertly analysed & quantum assessedJewellery manufacturing expertDiamond and gemstone valuationsDamage reports and assessmentsBusiness Stock valuationsExperienced in trading standards issuesInsurance quantum and investigation